A REMARKABLE CASE.

M.R. MURPHY, 90 North Sixth-street, Philadelphia, Agent for Shekmay's Messcated Lozenges, shys that a poor woman called at his Office and stated that her daughter, seven years old, had been sick for searly three years; her stomach was distended to the size of a grown person's; her arms and legs so swolles that she could not walk or help herself, although she could eat as much as two laboring men. They had exployed two selebrated doctors, who could do nothing for her, and had given her up as incarable. Her husband had become discouraged, and abandoned all idea of trying to do any thing mere for her, and looked to death alone to take her out of her missery. Mrs. Murphy, believing her case to be one of Worms, gave her a box of Shorman's Worm Lozenges, and is two days she retirened, with joy beaming in her eyes, and said the Lozenges had saved her child's life, after all had given her up. The first dose brought away usariy a pist of worms in one living mass. She had not take two boxes before she was entirely circuit, having passed after the first dose, which she could not count, ever 100 worms in one week. She was literally caten up with them. Another living witness of the almost miraculous efficacy of Sherman's Lozenges. Principal Office in New-York, 106 Nassau of Sherman's Lozenges.

PEASE'S HOARHOUND CANDY Is RECOMMENDED by Clergymea, Public Speakers and Vecalists as a valuable compound for clearing the voice and strengthening the langs.

Is a sa valuable compound for clearing the voice and strengthening the longs.

From the New-York Herald.

"Receive advice from that one who is disinterected. There are more that take colds and die with Codsumption by sleeping in damp rooms, either painted or whinevenshed; hence, there is no remedy so harmless, pleasant and yet efficacious as Pease's Bearhouad Candy, 45 Division street. We would advise every family without a exception to provide themselves with this annivabled remedy, which we have been eve witnesses of its officacy in autabriess cases; in fact it is automishing the virtues it possesses. The Mears, Pease are ammortalising themselves both by praise for the good their Candy has done, and also their pockets. There is no remedy in the whole scope of our observation that has attended the celebrity of this valuable remedy. It is true that numbers of Professors have appeared, who have given out that they would effect a cure of every disease which flesh is heir to, but how soldom have their results been equalled by their pretensions. This is not the case with Pease's Compound Hoarhound Candy; how justly then should the meed of praine be awarded to the Measer. Pease for he decovery of their sovereign remesty."

MESSES, J. PLASE & SON:—Dear Sir—Last Solurday night I slept in a newly painted room, and when I awake in the amorning I was almost deprived of the power of my voice, and had a part in my side. I immediately sent for Br. Rogers, and he said I could not hive tild night; he said I had the painter's collick and palpitation of the keart, and when they came is contact, death was invariably the consequence. I sent my son to No. 19 Aster House for one doltars worth of your Candy, and I consumed twe-thirds of it during the day, and in the afterneon whea the Doctor called to see how his medicine operated, was sitting up, and he was astenished and said he well know that if the medicine he he had save thirds of it during the day, and in the afterneon whea the Doctor called to see how his medicine operated, w
